

Kindergarten K- News
March 8-12, 2009

Monday: I hope that everyone had a great weekend. Today begins Lutheran schools week. The children made posters last week of what they think is about CTCA. We will draw a name for someone to be teacher for the day on Friday. This will be a random drawing with all students' names in a hat and a name drawn out for the teacher for the day. The See's Candy sales will monies need to be turned in today. Student store will be open after school. Return your reading book. Write your spelling words 3 times each.

Tuesday: Today is dress like a teacher day. That doesn't mean that the boys need to dress like me, but could dress like Mr. Jenkins and wear a tie. Student store will be open after school. Return your reading book. Write spelling words three times each.

Wednesday: Today is Chapel. Chapel uniforms are required today. You may send in your offering in any envelope for Chapel today. During Chapel today the drawing of who will be principal for the day on Friday will be drawn. Return your reading book. Write your spelling words three times each.

Thursday: The 3rd to 6th grades will be going to Chollas Lake to run a cross country race. The Kindergarten through 2nd grade will run relay races at lunch today. Return your reading book. Take a practice spelling test tonight. Write the words missed three times each.

Friday: Today is crazy hat or hair day. How crazy can you be? Have a great weekend. Return your reading book.

Upcoming events

Sat. 3-13 set clocks ahead 1 hour

Sun. 3-14 our chorus will be performing in La Jolla

Wed. 3-17 half day

Thurs. 3-18 Rubios dine out